2. The Board of Management recognises the very serious nature of bullying and the negative impact that it can have on the lives of pupils and is therefore fully committed to the following key principles of best practice in preventing and tackling bullying behaviour:

- A positive school culture and climate which-
 - is welcoming of difference and diversity and is based on inclusivity;
 - encourages pupils to disclose and discuss incidents of bullying behaviour in a non-threatening environment; and
 - promotes respectful relationships across the school community;
- Effective leadership;
- A school-wide approach;
- A shared understanding of what bullying is and its impact;
- Implementation of education and prevention strategies (including awareness raising measures) that-
 - build empathy, respect and resilience in pupils; and
 - explicitly address the issues of cyber-bullying and identity-based bullying including in particular, homophobic and transphobic bullying.
- Effective supervision and monitoring of pupils;
- Supports for staff;
- Consistent recording, investigation and follow up of bullying behaviour (including use of established intervention strategies); and
- On-going evaluation of the effectiveness of the anti-bullying policy.

3. In accordance with the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools bullying is defined as follows:

Bullying is unwanted negative behaviour, verbal, psychological or physical conducted, by an individual or group against another person (or persons) and which is repeated over time.

The following types of bullying behaviour are included in the definition of bullying:

- deliberate exclusion, malicious gossip and other forms of relational bullying,
- cyber-bullying and
- identity-based bullying such as homophobic bullying, racist bullying, bullying based on a person's membership of the Traveller community and bullying of those with disabilities or special educational needs.

Isolated or once-off incidents of intentional negative behaviour, including a once-off offensive or hurtful text message or other private messaging, do not fall within the definition of bullying and should be dealt with, as appropriate, in accordance with the school's code of behaviour.

However, in the context of this policy, placing a once-off offensive or hurtful public message, image or statement on a social network site or other public forum where that message, image or statement can be viewed and/or repeated by other people will be regarded as bullying behaviour.

Negative behaviour that does not meet this definition of bullying will be dealt with in accordance with the school's code of behaviour.

Additional information on different types of bullying is set out in Section 2 of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools.

4. The relevant teacher(s) for investigating and dealing with bullying is (are) as follows: (see Section 6.8 of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools):

Subject Teacher

Class Tutor

Deputy Principal

Principal

Guidance Counsellor

5. The education and prevention strategies (including strategies specifically aimed at cyber- bullying and identity-based bullying including in particular, homophobic and transphobic bullying) that will be used by the school are as follows (see Section 6.5 of the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools):

Prevention Strategies: Our school policy stresses the need to prevent not just control bullying. It is not sufficient to discipline the bully, and give support to the victim. It is necessary to consider how the school can raise awareness of bullying, see what preventative strategies can be taken, with a view to recognising positive behaviour, and modifying negative behaviour.

School Policy on Cyber-Bullying Prevention

- Mobile phones are switched off during school hours.
- The school has an 'Internet Acceptable Use Policy'.
- The school has a Code of Conduct for use of the Net and access is screened by a variety of blocks which are updated regularly.
- Teachers must teach safe Internet Use and strictly apply all policies.
- Teachers teach awareness of –
 - * the impact of cyber-bullying;
 - * responsible use of ICT
 - * sanctions for mis-use
 - * who provides support if cyber-bullying takes place.
- Victims should keep emails and texts as evidence, for tracing and possible Garda action.
- The Principal, ICT Coordinator meets with staff, parents to ensure that all adults, as well as students understand how to use technology safely.
- Teachers discuss “netiquette”, e-Safety and digital literacy.
- Passwords should include capitals, lower case, symbols and numbers.

The Jesus and Mary Secondary School believes that parental support and understanding is safe use of the Net is an essential component in managing cyber-bullying. The use of the Web is an essential part of modern life and the young are the pioneers.

Behave and perspective are essential as is a whole school approach to ensuring safe use of the Internet. The responsibility for this is both the school's in educating the pupils for safe use of the Net, and the parents' in understanding that they need to monitor and manage their children's use of the Net.

Supporting the person being cyber-bullied

- Give assurance that the pupil has done the right thing by telling someone.
- Make sure the pupil knows not to retaliate or return the message.
- Ask the pupil to think about what information they have in the public domain.
- Help the pupil to keep relevant evidence for any investigation (e.g. by not deleting messages they have received, and by taking screen capture shots and noting the web addresses of on-line cyber-bullying incidents).
- Check the pupil understands simple ways to prevent cyber-bullying e.g. by changing contact details, blocking contacts or leaving chatrooms.
- If you know the person responsible ask them to remove the content.
- Contact the social networking site to make a report to get the contact taken down.
- Confiscate mobile phones, being used to cyber-bullying and ask the pupil to tell who they have sent messages onto.
- In case of illegal content, contact the Gardaí who can determine what needs to be kept for evidential purposes.

Key Safety Advice

The whole school community has a part to play in ensuring cyber safety. Understanding children and young people's online lives and activities can help adults respond to situations appropriately and effectively. Asking children and young people to show adults how technologies and services work is a useful strategy that can provide an important learning opportunity and context for discussing online safety.

For children and young people

1. Always respect others – be careful what you say online and what images you send.
2. Think before you send – whatever you send 2: can be made public very quickly and could stay online forever.
3. Treat your password like your toothbrush –3: keep it to yourself. Only give your mobile number or personal website address to trusted friends.
4. Block the bully – learn how to block or report 4: someone who is behaving badly.
5. Don't retaliate or reply:
6. Save the evidence – learn how to keep 6: records of offending messages, pictures or online conversations.
7. Make sure you tell:
 - an adult you trust, or call a helpline like ChildLine on 0800 1111 in confidence;
 - the provider of the service; check the • service provider's website to see where to report incidents;
 - your school – your teacher or the • anti-bullying coordinator can help you.

Finally, don't just stand there – if you see cyber-bullying going on, support the victim and report the bullying. How would you feel if no one stood up for you?

For parents and carers

1. Be aware, your child may as likely cyber-bully as be a target of cyber-bullying. Be alert to your child seeming upset after using the internet or their mobile phone. This might involve subtle comments or changes in relationships with friends. They might be unwilling to talk or be secretive about their online activities and mobile phone use.
2. Talk with your children and understand 2: the ways in which they are using the internet and their mobile phone. See the seven key messages for children (on the left) to get you started.
3. Use the tools on the service and turn on 3: in-built internet safety features.
4. Remind your child not to retaliate.
5. Keep the evidence of offending emails, text messages or online conversations.
6. Report cyber-bullying
 - Contact your child's school if it involves another pupil, so that they can take appropriate action.
 - Contact the service provider.
 - If the cyber-bullying is serious and a potential criminal offence has been committed, you should consider contacting the Gardaí.

Dealing with Bullying Incidents using the Restorative Justice Principles: see Appendix 12.

Step one: - meet with the targeted pupil

The facilitator will talk to the targeted pupil about his/her feelings. No questions are asked about the incidents but information is needed about who was involved.

Step two: - convene a meeting with the people involved, separately.

Be aware students may need time to calm down.

- (i) before any meaningful discussion can take place;
- (ii) before change of behaviour can occur.

Question misbehaviour, establish the facts and listen.

Allow students explain their negative actions by using some, or all of the following questions:

- ▣ What triggers their misbehaviour?
- ▣ What were you thinking when you did this?
- ▣ How does the misbehaviour affect other students?
- ▣ How does the misbehaviour affect your teacher?
- ▣ How does the misbehaviour affect the teaching and learning relationship?

Judge only when certain. (How I perceive a situation can determine how I act).

Step three:- Explain the problem, tell the individual pupil(s) or group of pupils about the way the target is feeling.

Step four:- Share responsibility.

The facilitator does not attribute blame but does emphasise the joint responsibility of all to help the targeted pupil feel respected, happy and safe. Encourage mutual understanding and apology.

Step five:- Ask the group for their ideas, suggestions which will help the targeted pupil feel respected, happy and safe.

Step six:- Leave it up to them.

The facilitator ends the meeting by passing over the responsibility to the group to solve the problem. S/He arranges to 'catch up' with each of the group in a few days (or sooner if appropriate) to see how things are going.

Step seven:- Meet them later.

A few days later and then regularly for a number of weeks the facilitator discusses with each pupil, including the targeted pupil, how things are going. In some situations a simple non-verbal signal can be used to indicate how well the plan is going such as a thumbs up.

This monitoring should continue until the facilitator is confident that the bullying has stopped. All monitoring needs to be recorded.

Guidelines for Deputy Principal/Principal when dealing with complaints, disclosures, suspicions of bullying.

STAGE ONE: The no blame approach a restorative approach.

- The Deputy Principal/Principal will conduct an investigation following a report or incident of bullying which will include interviewing the victim(s), witness(es) and alleged perpetrator(s).
- Convene a meeting with the students involved. Friend(s) of the victim may also attend.
- Explain the position to the alleged perpetrator(s) without allocating blame.
- A written undertaking will be sought from the parties involved that the unacceptable behaviour will end. The situation will be kept under observation and review.
- Contact parents of the students involved if necessary. Parents will also be contacted if written undertakings are not given.
- If the bullying involves cyber bullying, it is open to the victim(s) parents/guardians to report the matter to Gardaí. The following legislation may be used by the Gardaí: Section 13 of the Post Office (Amendment) Act 1951 or Section 10 of the Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997. See Appendix 20.

STAGE TWO: Repeated Bullying

- The Principal or Deputy Principal will initiate pastoral strategies in the interest of the victim(s) and/or perpetrator(s), including contact with outside agencies if appropriate. Parents will be contacted and will be expected to arrange counselling for their child to help with their repeated bullying. Documentary evidence will be required by the school management to confirm that the student has engaged in the counselling.
- If the bullying involves cyber bullying, it is open to the victim(s) parents/guardians to report the matter to the Gardaí. The following legislation may be used by the Gardaí: Section 13 of the Post Office (Amendment) Act 1951 or Section 10 of the Non-Fatal Offences Against the Person Act 1997. See Appendix 8.
- Impose disciplinary sanctions as appropriate with reference to the Code of Behaviour.
- The situation will be kept under observation and review and support will be arranged for the victim.

STAGE THREE:

Where a student continues to bully after engaging in the counselling in stage two, his case will be referred to the Board of Management. The Board may consider sanctions up to and including expulsion.

Advice for young people on how to handle cyber-bullying and be cyber-safe.

If you are being cyber-bullied, it is important to remember the following:

- Do not ignore the bullying, tell someone you trust.
- Remember it is not about you. Often people who bully others do so to make themselves feel better because they are unhappy. Do not blame yourself, it is not your fault.
- Do not delete the offensive text, email, phone call, video clip or image; this should instead be kept as evidence.
- Do not respond to unwanted texts, instead turn off your phone for a few days or change your number.
- If you are receiving unwanted calls, do not hang up straight away as this may feed the callers wish to scare you, instead walk away and hang up a few minutes later.
- Think about purchasing an application which would allow you to control who calls or sends you texts, such as vMad Bully Stop from Carphone Warehouse.

Some tips on staying Cyber-safe:

Facebook

- + Do not accept 'friend invites' from people you do not know: exercise the same caution you would with a stranger you meet on the street.
- + Make sure your privacy settings are so that only your friends can view your personal information and photos. If your profile is set to 'public' anybody can view your photos and anything you or your friends write online.
- + Be sensible about what personal information you include in your profile. Keep it general and exercise great caution in listing details of your home address, mobile number, email address, the school or sports club you attend.
- + Do not assume just because your profile is 'private' that your conversations are too. If someone hacks into your friend's profile, then they will also be able to view all your information.
- + Make it a rule of thumb not to divulge anything online that you would not be happy to say out loud in a crowded room.

General cyber-safety:

- * Do not respond to 'flames' (unwanted emails) or open files from people you do not know.
- * If you are using instant messaging, chat rooms or other social networking sites, remember to never give out personal information or photo's, instead use a nickname.
- * By cyber-savvy and bear in mind that the person you are communicating with may not be who they say they are.

Restorative Justice

The basic Principles of “Restorative Justice” are:

- 1. Foster awareness in the student of how other have been affected.
- 2. Avoid scolding or lecturing. This often results in the student reacting defensively. It distracts them from noticing other people’s feelings.
- 3. Involve the student actively. Instead of simply doling out punishment, which the student is expected to accept passively, in a Restorative intervention the student is asked to speak. They face and listen to those who have been affected by their inappropriate behaviour.
- 4. Accept ambiguity. Often fault is unclear and people can agree to accept the ambiguous situation.
- 5. Separate the deed from the doer. We can recognise a student’s worth, their virtues and accomplishments while disapproving of their wrongdoing.
- 6. See every serious instance of wrongdoing and conflict as an opportunity for learning. Negative incidents can be used constructively to build empathy and a sense of community in the hope that there is a reduction of negative incidents in the future.
- 7. Restorative practices must be systemic, not situational. Every attempt on an individual level to use these principles needs to be well supported by the broader system. How can the system be transformed in ways likely to minimize the chance of further harm?

Challenges of Restorative Justice in a school.

To enhance school culture so that the school community understands that:

- * Student’s mistakes, even extreme ones, are inevitable and we need a way of processing these that is beyond punishment so that learning occurs.
- * We need to encourage our students to think for themselves, so that their behaviour is not motivated by avoidance of punishment.
- * Education is about relationships, not control, and relationships have inevitable conflict, which requires healing.
- * Teachers are part of a process of restoration, not just retribution.
- * Schools can deal with the extreme misbehaviour if properly supported by ethos, leadership and strategic planning.
- * Parents can learn over time that we all have a commitment to the ‘needy child’ and that the child’s negative coping is not necessarily contagious.
- * The language of Restorative Justice needs to be brought into our schools so that dialogue can occur.
- * Persistent attempts at interventions, that do not appear to work, do not equate with failure.

Restorative Justice

The following affective questions are asked in an 'interview' situation in order to solve the problem:

1. What happened?
2. How did it happen?
3. What was your part in it?
4. Who do you think was affected?
5. How were they affected?
6. How were you affected?
7. What needs to happen to make things right?
8. If the same situation happens again how could you behave differently?

Affective Statements

- * Focus on specific behaviours or incident without blaming.
- * Use 'rational' questions to draw out who was affected and how they were affected.
- * Reflect on the impact that the behaviour or incident has had on you and others.

The child is actively involved in the process. In some cases the perpetrator and the 'victim' may be present at the one interview while the above questions are asked.

A Restorative Interaction Feedback sheet

Prior to meeting

- * What are the key issues?
- * What outcome/s do you want?
- * What are the barriers?

Restorative Principles	Single Statements
1. Separate the deed from the doer.	We are here to discuss a specific issue.
2. Talk about the effect of the behaviour on yourself and others.	It is important to understand the impact this behaviour is having on others.
3. Use 'Collaborative Language.'	We really need to work together.
4. Joint problem solve to enhance responsibility.	Together we need to come up with a couple of key strategies that could make a difference.
5. Use future talk.	Tomorrow we will try – We shall monitor how the strategies are working and meet as often as we can.
6. Make a realistic and achievable plan.	Let's write down the things we have agreed

Possible Intervention Strategies – Staff Suggestions

Below are a number of strategies that staff can suggest to students as a way of helping to deal with a bullying situation. They will have to be explained and in many cases will need to be practised.

N.B. Whatever strategies are tried, the member of staff MUST follow it up and check how effective (or not) it has been, also they MUST still report the incident.

- 1. Be assertive not aggressive: If the person being bullied acts in an aggressive way, then this can make the matter worse. Practice in speaking in a positive manner can help. Perhaps the help of the drama teacher could be sought?
- 2. Call for help: Ask for help for anyone around. This is where the “bystander” intervention comes into place. Work encouraging all students to take an active part in helping others will be a part of the ongoing work which will be carried out throughout the year. If outside school then draw the attention of any adult e.g. a shopkeeper.
- 3. Escape: Rehearse getting out of situations, without losing face and then talk to an appropriate person if possible ask for “bystanders” to help you escape.
- 4. Saying NO: Everyone can learn to do this but it does take practice. Remember though not to be aggressive. Rehearse this in groups.
- 5. Broken Record: Choose a simple sentence and repeat it, e.g. “No I don’t want to”. Again this must be practised so that it can be said with confidence. A variation of this is to add another sentence to the “Broken Record.”
- 6. Fogging: This means being vague and not allowing yourself to react. Bore the bully by agreeing with what they say. Use words like ‘probably’ or ‘you think so’. This last one is useful for name calling. (Again practice with help).
- 7. Positive Self Talk: Role play walking through groups of people saying things about themselves that they like. This acts as a barrier to the bullying. It is not walking away but it is also not ignoring. Look the bully in the eye, but do not smile. This is in fact a non-verbal challenge.
- 8. Walking Away: This is not quite the same as “Escape”. Practise in groups – “No I do not want to “and then walk away to the side. This is better than backing away.
- 9. Tell Parents: This should be encouraged so that everyone can work together.

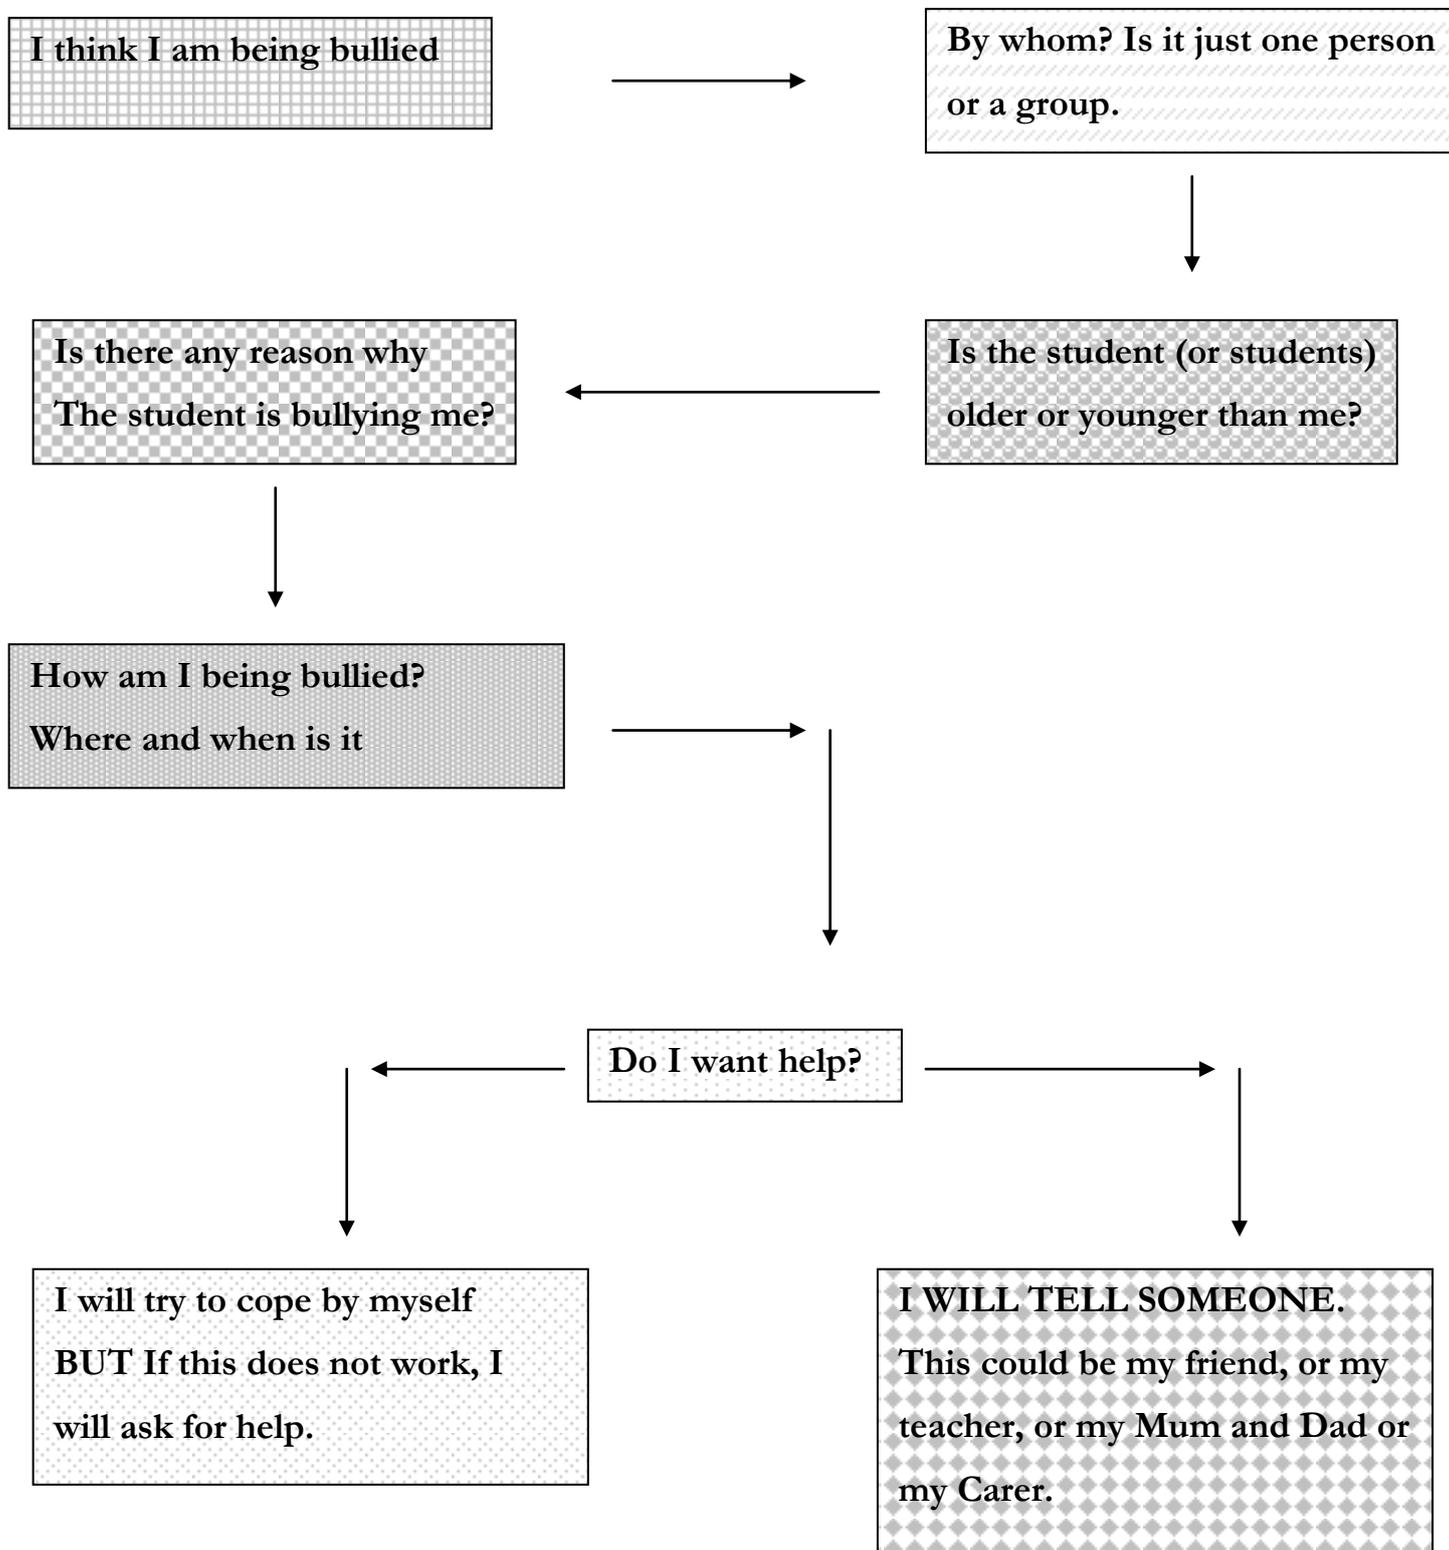

The above are some suggestions that can be tried. There are others such as avoiding places where bullying can take place or always staying with others.

Prevention Strategies:

What to do if you think you are being bullied.

If you think that you are being bullied then this chart will help you decide what to do. Look carefully at each question and write down the answer on a sheet of paper.

Follow the arrows.

7b. Support for parents.

HOW CAN I TELL IF MY CHILD IS BEING BULLIED?

There are some signs to look out for if you have suspicions.
These can include:

- * Unexplained bruises.
- * Afraid and anxious when going to or coming from school or work.
- * School performance getting steadily worse for no obvious reason.
- * Being generally nervous, tense, and unhappy.
- * Not explaining suspicious incidents/vague explanations.
- * Signs of being isolated from others of the same age.
- * Signs of regular interference with personal property, books etc.
- * Frequently asking for (or perhaps stealing) money.

Although these can also indicate problems other than bullying, it is important that you do not ignore them. Try to encourage the child to talk about what is going on, either to you or to another trusted adult.

HOW CAN I TELL IF MY CHILD IS A BULLY.

Here are some indicators of bullying behaviour.

- * A tendency to bully family members.
- * Being a victim of bullying.
- * Regularly witnessing bullying behaviour in their environment.
- * Being frequently short-tempered and/or aggressive.
- * Having past experiences which can still cause negative feelings.
- * Bringing home items that you know were not bought.
- * Speaking of others in a negative way, perhaps on the basis of their appearance or beliefs or social status.
- * Showing an interest in violent behaviour.
- * Showing little sensitivity towards others.
- * Having low self-esteem.
- * Being the subject of previous complaints or suggestions of bullying behaviour.

HOW DO I INFORM THE SCHOOL OF MY CONCERNS/ (PARENT)

- * Contact the school.
- * Make an appointment to meet with someone in authority in the school.
- * Don't exaggerate. Be honest and stick to the facts as you understand them.
- * Make some notes beforehand to make sure you don't forget to mention any important points.
- * Recognise that you may be upset when you speak to the teacher.
- * Accept that your child may not have told you all the facts and that there may be another side to the story.
- * Ask for a copy of the school's policy on bullying.
- * Find out what action the school intends to take.
- * Arrange for a follow-up meeting with the teacher to measure any improvement in the situation.
- * After the meeting you may wish to make a note of what was agreed and send a copy to the teacher.
- * If you are not happy with the teacher's response, make an appointment to see the Principal.
- * If you still feel dissatisfied having spoken to the Principal, contact members of the Board of Management who are there to represent your interests. Remember to keep copies of all letters you send and receive.
- * If your child is happy to have you attend you can request that all interviews with him/her on this issue are conducted in your presence.
